about the babe

I am a North Carolina based work-at-home-mom of three young boys Jax (6) + Loch (4) + Rowan (2). I have been an "at-home-worker-outer" for many years, and I appreciate the time + money it saves me.

I appreciate knocking out a 30 minute workout, in 30 minutes. Not having to interrupt someone's nap, haul a diaper bag, strap kids in and out of car seats and sit in traffic in order to get a few minutes out of my day to sweat and do something for myself.

I am a thirty-something boy mom who just wants to feel good in my own skin. As a DI- gymnast, I've been intensely active my entire life, but being a gymnast, left my body beat up, and I needed to find a fitness format that was "nice" yet effective ... so I created it!
